September 9, 2018. by Upen. 5 min read. The main difference between text and discourse is that the text does not specify an agent whereas the discourse specifies the agent of the information. Thus, a text is necessarily non-interactive while discourse is necessarily interactive. Even though the two terms text and discourse are used interchangeably with concern to literary analytical studies, these two are two diverging subjects.

Select a specific text that you'd like to analyze. In critical discourse analysis (CDA), the term "text" has many meanings because it applies to any type of communication, whether it's words or visuals. This includes written texts (whether literary, scientific, or journalistic), speech, and images. A text can also include more than 1 of these.
