2) Ty Cobb - The "Georgia Preach" as he was known, was one of the greatest hitters to ever play the game. His reputation was unjustly soiled by a drunken sportswriter named Al Stump and later Ken Burns in his PBS Documentary Baseball. But the truth about Cobb was he was as good a man as he was a baseball player.

Tony Gwynn is the greatest hitter in the history of baseball. That's the conclusion of this engaging and provocative analysis of baseball's all-time best hitters. Michael Schell challenges the traditional list of all-time hitters, which places Ty Cobb first, Gwynn 16th, and includes just 8 players whose prime came after 1960.

This is a great book about baseballs greatest hitters. They range from Ty Cobb to Miguel Cabrera. Ty Cobb is described as fighter. Hes been known to climb into the stands just to slug a fan who booed him. He has the motto: Ive got to be first in everything. He has the highest lifetime batting average. He did die a lonely and bitter man and only three baseball people came to his funeral.
