Educational Assessment in a Time of Reform provides background information on large-scale examination systems more generally and the South African examination specifically. It traces the reforms in the education system of South Africa since 1994 and provides a description of the advances in modern test theory that could be considered for future standard setting endeavours. At the heart of the book is the debate on whether the current standard of education in Africa is good enough. If not, then how can it be improved? The aim of this book is to provide a point of departure for discussions on standard-setting, quality assurance, equating of examinations and assessment approaches. From this point of departure recommendations for practices in general and the exit-level (Grade 12) examination results in particular can be made. This book is ideal reading for principals, teachers, academics and researchers in the fields of educational assessment, measurement, and evaluation.

Are you overwhelmed by the new syllabus and the workload? Do you need some useful and reliable guidance from a student who has nailed the exams? This book has been written by a teenager, like you. Having achieved seven 9s, three A*s and one A in his GCSEs, the author has shared his revision style to help many other teenagers to realise their potential. In his book, Rohan has outlined his tried and tested methods to achieve the best grades. There is step by step guide on planning, making a timetable, and revision techniques leading up to the GCSE exams. There are separate chapters for subject-specific advice as the same technique cannot work for subjects like English and Chemistry. There are tips on how to stay motivated and also relax and enjoy at the same time. Smart working rather than a lot of working helps. Read this book and arm yourself with studying techniques which will help you not only in your GCSEs but all future exams.
