If you want to have everything you need to be set for guided reading in second grade, check out the Guided Reading Bundle for levels K-M. Each level has: 6 texts in both color and black and white; Scripted lesson plans; Teaching posters and charts; Parent Involvement notes; Everything you need for word work for each book; Running records

Guided reading is all about practice, so have students whisper read (or silently read - in late first grade and second grade) all of the words on their own. That said, some students in Kindergarten or early first grade may need more support than the book introduction in order to be successful with the text.

Step 1: Form your guided reading groups. First, of course, you'll need to determine how you want to group your students. For guided reading (not all small group instruction - just guided reading), I group students by reading level. If you need some help forming your groups, check out this blog post! In it, I explain what to do if your
