WOUN2M - GRETCHEN NOVAK

KILLER FAMILIES MURDER IN THE FAMILY The family home is supposed to be a place where family members find a safe haven from the stress of outside life. A place where they feel protected and loved. Yet for many this is simply not the case. The true stories in this short book demonstrate that the family environment can be a very dangerous place indeed.

Or they see a vague resemblance in a composite sketch and hope to ride a sensational case to 15 minutes of fame. In very rare instances, people who suspect their fathers, brothers or other family members are long-sought serial killers are dead right and help authorities solve a notorious cold case. But far more often, they pester police with circumstantial evidence backing up wild theories—and then accuse the cops of cover-ups when their suspicions are dismissed.

In another incident, the Podkopaev family murdered a paratrooper, Dmitry Chudakov, his wife, Irina, their son, Sasha (age 7), and a daughter, Veronika (age 11), who absorbed the brunt of the violence. Dmitry, Irina, and Sasha were all shot several times with fully-automatic weapons. Veronika wasn't so lucky.

When you think of serial killers, some names probably come to mind: Ted Bundy, Jeffrey Dahmer, Son of Sam, The Green River Killer, and Jack the Ripper. Many other names could come to mind, and they probably all belong to men. However, men are not the only ones with the capacity to be serial killers.
