LM3QQ2 - SEMAJ ROWAN

Tell Me It's Real is Paul's story, the story of a man whose self-confidence level is somewhere south of hella low but whose personality is somewhere north of luminous. This is the story of a man who isn't salon tested and steroid approved; he isn't what anyone might describe as genetically gifted or socially savvy, but he is real and he's warm, and he and this delightful cast of characters are more than just words on a page.

Would you consider the audio edition of Tell Me It's Real to be better than the print version? That is a toss up. Having read everything T.J. has written, I feel like I can hear his voice in my head, but saying that, he has wonderful narrators for his books. What other book might you compare Tell Me It's Real to and why?

Tell Me It's Real has possibly one of the worst book covers ever, which is why I've waited so long to read it. But this is one of those books where you have to look past the awful cover to get to the amazing inside of the book. Paul is a husky guy, insecure and settled in his life.

Thanks for accepting my friend request Tj. I can't tell you how much WWE is affecting me. I am at such a shitty place in life right now and Bear's internal monologue with God is a perfect example of what's going on with me. Especially when he goes back to the beach. It was very cathartic for me to sob like that!
