Summary: Follow a little sea turtle from the time she hatches until she again returns to the beach to lay her own eggs.

Reissued with new illustrations and updated material on conservation efforts, the book also stresses the role humans can play in helping these endangered turtles survive and the types of dangers they encounter on land and in the sea.

Review | Turtle, Turtle, Watch Out!

With each danger comes the refrain, "Turtle, Turtle Watch Out!," inviting listeners to take part in the story. Using a palette dominated by deep blues and greens, Christiansen creates spread-filling, dimly lit ocean scenes, viewing the turtle (generally head on) as she plugs along, feeding, growing, narrowly escaping one risk after another, returning at last to the beach where she hatched to lay eggs of her own.
